

Attention FDA

0552 '00 APR -6 P1:42

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

The F.D.A. Should not pay for the Exam. They are approving a bunch of these Sweeteners and other drugs that hurt you, and on top of that we are supposed to be a free people? There are so many government regulations now, and we are paying for

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or them to do this have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

a Bad wreck

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

It is none of the F.D.A. Business if we are still a free people or is the government trying to tell us what we can and can't do.

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

yes
